Gilliams, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Eade, Mrs. Creasey, Mrs. B. Creasey, Mrs. J. Monk, Mrs. W. Monk, Mr. W. Monk, senr., Mrs. S. Wickens, Mrs. Packham, Miss Prevett, Mrs. Hawkins, and many others.

WILLIAM COOK

'Surrey Mirror', 12 Feb 1937

THE LATE MR. W. COOK.—We regret to report the death of Mr. William Cook, who passed away peacefully on Saturday at the age of 65 years, at his daughter's home in Croydon. Mr. Cook was very well-known and respected in the village. He was, until May, 1935, in the employ of Messrs. Eade and Sons, of Charlwood where he had worked as blacksmith for over 40 years. He attended regularly at Providence Chapel, and was always ready to give his services in any capacity when required in connection with that Chapel. The large attendance of relatives and friends at the funeral gave evidence of the high esteem in which he was held. The funeral took place on Thursday of last week, at the Providence Chapel, the service being conducted by Mr. Rose, of Tamworth-road, Croydon, during which the hymn, "Give me the wings of faith to rise," was sung, and by a wish expressed by Mr. Cook before his death the Doxology was sung at the graveside. The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Cook (widow), Mr. and Mrs. Wadey (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. and Mrs.

Middlecote (son-in-law and daughter, Mr. J. Cook (brother), Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cook (brother and sister-in-law), Mrs. G. Charman (sister), Mr. and Mrs. Tyrell (brother-in-law and sister), Mr. J. Creasey (brother-in-law), Mrs. B. Creasey (sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Standing (brother-in-law and sister), Mrs. Tester (sister-in-law), Mrs. T. Creasey, sen., Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Charman (nephew and niece), Mrs. R. P. Cook and Mrs. A. G. Cook (nieces), Mr. E. Creasey, Mr. T. Middlecote, Miss Mercy Wadey, Mr. Cecil Wadey, Mr. F. Parncombe, Mr. A. Burt, Mr. Hover, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Eade, Mr. R. Eade, Mr. B. Wadey, Mr. S. Miles, Mr. T. Knapp and Mr. Wright (workmates), Mr. Lovelock, Mrs. G. Kempshall, Mrs. Crowhurst, Mrs. Packham, Mrs. J. Kempshall, Mrs. Bignall, Miss Prevett and Miss Woodward. Beautiful floral tributes were sent by:—"Mother, Ness and Alf (in loving memory of dear Dad)"; "Neil, Alf and Baby Ann"; "Joan and Jeanie"; "Lillian, Mercy, Mildred and Cecil"; "Alice and Robert"; "Mum and Jan"; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Creasey (London); "Workmates" (Charlwood and Horley); Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Eade and family; Mr. and Mrs. Middlecote, George and Phyllis; Mr. and Miss Chapman; "Neighbours at Hampton-road"; Mr. and Mrs. Fenner and family; Ruby and Mrs. Woodward; and "A friend at Hampton-road, Croydon." — The funeral arrangements were carried out by Messrs. PARISH CHURCH MEETINGS.

BELTON HENRY CREASEY

'Surrey Mirror', 16 Aug 1946.

The funeral of Mr. Belton Henry Creasey of Chapel-road, Charlwood, took place last Friday afternoon. The service at Providence Chapel, Charlwood, was conducted by Mr. Alfred Brookes who recalled associations with Mr. Creasey and his family over a period of almost 50 years. Mr. Creasey, who was born in Charlwood and spent all his life there, was well-known in the district and greatly respected by all who knew him. His greatest work in the village was in connection with the Fire Brigade, of which he was captain for many years, and he did not spare himself in this work. He worked for many years with the London Passenger Transport Board at their Reigate depot as a coachbuilder and would normally have retired at the age of 60 but carried on during the war period till last August. Since then his health has continued to deteriorate and after a long illness he died on August 7th., at the age of 66 years.

The chief mourners were Mrs. B. H. Creasey (widow), Mr. F. B. Creasey and Mr. C. H. Creasey (sons), Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Winter (son-in-law and daughter), Mrs. L. Beer (daughter), Mr. T. Willis (son-in-law), Mrs. A. Creasey (step-mother), Miss J. Creasey (step-sister), Mrs. Cook (sister), Mrs. A. Middlecote and Miss D. Standing (nieces). Among others present were: the Rev. W. Grainger Thompson (Rector of Charlwood), Mr. and Mrs. Surridge, Mr. and Mrs. R. Eade, Mr. and Mrs. T. Eade, Mr. W. Monk, Mr. Skinner and Mr. Ayling. There were a large number of beautiful floral tributes from relatives and friends, whose kind expressions of sympathy are gratefully acknowledged by Mrs. Creasey and family.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. T. Wickens of Charlwood.
